lassified		t - Sanitized Copy Approved for Release @ 50-Yr2013/05/07  CLASSIFICATION CONFIDENTIAL/SECURITY II	NFORMATION
		CENTRAL INTELLIGENCE AGENCY	REPORT
		INFORMATION REPORT	5 · ·
COU	NTRY	USSR	DATE DISTR. 29 DEC 52
SUB		Restrictions Imposed on Scientific Personnel Engaged in Field Trips	NO. OF PAGES 1
PLAC ACQ	CE UIRED		NO. OF ENCLS. (LISTED BELOW)
DAT	E UIRE(		SUPPLEMENT TO REPORT NO.
	e of ]		•
THIS OF T AND LAT! PRO!	DOCUMENT THE UNITED 794, OF T SON OF ITS HIBITED BY	CONTENTS TO OR RECEIPT BY AN UNAUTHORIZED PERSON IS	UNEVALUATED INFORMATION 50X1
		acquiring flora and fauna specimens for the museum most trips rested with the assistant directors or himself. Discussions would be held by the members division, who would draw up a proposal, including purpose of trip, complement, and a budget. This purpose of trip, complement, and a budget.	area of USER to be visited, proposal had to be first circu- dications of interest by staff
		acquiring flora and fauna specimens for the museum most trips rested with the assistant directors or himself. Discussions would be held by the members division, who would draw up a proposal, including purpose of trip, complement, and a budget. This plated amongst the various museum divisions for incembers. All divisions had the privilege of requifield of interest be indulged with a reasonable mincreasing the requested budget. The overall platedirector who had the power of passing, altering, passed a plan, it was then given to the comptrollege of altering the budget if necessary or sity funds were allocated by the Ministry of Educated trips usually were planned for the end of the	their superior, the director of the assistant director's area of USSR to be visited, proposal had to be first circudications of interest by staff esting that their particular number of specimens, thus normally news then handed to the museum or vetoing. If the director ar of the University, who had the giving final approval. University each fiscal year, and hat year when unused funds were
	2.	acquiring flora and fauna specimens for the museum most trips rested with the assistant directors or himself. Discussions would be held by the members division, who would draw up a proposal, including purpose of trip, complement, and a budget. This plated amongst the various museum divisions for incommembers. All divisions had the privilege of requifield of interest be indulged with a reasonable mincreasing the requested budget. The overall platedirector who had the power of passing, altering, passed a plan, it was then given to the comptrolle privilege of altering the budget if necessary or sity funds were allocated by the Ministry of Educated trips usually were planned for the end of the dumped indiscriminately in order to justify a like	their superior, the director of the assistant director's area of USSR to be visited, proposal had to be first circudications of interest by staff esting that their particular umber of specimens, thus normally make then handed to the museum or vetoing. If the director ar of the University, who had the giving final approval. Universiting each fiscal year, and hat year when unused funds were a fund again.
50X1 50X1	2.	acquiring flora and fauna specimens for the museum most trips rested with the assistant directors or himself. Discussions would be held by the members division, who would draw up a proposal, including purpose of trip, complement, and a budget. This plated amongst the various museum divisions for immembers. All divisions had the privilege of required of interest be indulged with a reasonable mincreasing the requested budget. The overall plated director who had the power of passing, altering, passed a plan, it was then given to the comptrolle privilege of altering the budget if necessary or sity funds were allocated by the Ministry of Educated trips usually were planned for the end of the dumped indiscriminately in order to justify a like No special permits or papers were necessary for pworking in the interior of USSR, except for a valuear border areas, such as in the Caucasus, trave point of origin were necessary.  1939, border police required to request	their superior, the director of the assistant director's area of USSR to be visited, proposal had to be first circudications of interest by staff esting that their particular umber of specimens, thus normally near the handed to the museum or vetoing. If the director ar of the University, who had the giving final approval. University ation each fiscal year, and hat year when unused funds were a fund again.  ersonnel or equipment while id Soviet passport.
		acquiring flora and fauna specimens for the museum most trips rested with the assistant directors or himself. Discussions would be held by the members division, who would draw up a proposal, including purpose of trip, complement, and a budget. This plated amongst the various museum divisions for incembers. All divisions had the privilege of requireled of interest be indulged with a reasonable mincreasing the requested budget. The overall platedirector who had the power of passing, altering, passed a plan, it was then given to the comptrolled privilege of altering the budget if necessary or sity funds were allocated by the Ministry of Educated trips usually were planned for the end of the dumped indiscriminately in order to justify a like No special permits or papers were necessary for provoking in the interior of USSR, except for a valuear border areas, such as in the Caucasus, traversity of origin were necessary.	their superior, the stimulus for their superior, the director s of the assistant director's area of USSR to be visited, proposal had to be first circudications of interest by staff esting that their particular umber of specimens, thus normally n was then handed to the museum or vetoing. If the director ar of the University, who had the giving final approval. Universition each fiscal year, and hat year when unused funds were a fund again.  ersonnel or equipment while id Soviet passport.  l permits granted by NKVD at in Georgia SSR in
50X1		acquiring flora and fauna specimens for the museum most trips rested with the assistant directors or himself. Discussions would be held by the members division, who would draw up a proposal, including purpose of trip, complement, and a budget. This plated amongst the various museum divisions for immembers. All divisions had the privilege of required of interest be indulged with a reasonable mincreasing the requested budget. The overall plated director who had the power of passing, altering, passed a plan, it was then given to the comptrolle privilege of altering the budget if necessary or sity funds were allocated by the Ministry of Educated trips usually were planned for the end of the dumped indiscriminately in order to justify a like No special permits or papers were necessary for pworking in the interior of USSR, except for a valuear border areas, such as in the Caucasus, trave point of origin were necessary.  1939, border police required to request	their superior, the stimulus for their superior, the director s of the assistant director's area of USSR to be visited, proposal had to be first circulications of interest by staff esting that their particular umber of specimens, thus normally in was then handed to the museum or vetoing. If the director ar of the University, who had the giving final approval. Univeration each fiscal year, and hat year when unused funds were a fund again.  ersonnel or equipment while id Soviet passport.  l permits granted by NKVD at in Georgia SSR in permission from them to travel
50X1	3.	acquiring flora and fauna specimens for the museum most trips rested with the assistant directors or himself. Discussions would be held by the members division, who would draw up a proposal, including purpose of trip, complement, and a budget. This plated amongst the various museum divisions for incomplete. All divisions had the privilege of required of interest be indulged with a reasonable mincreasing the requested budget. The overall plate director who had the power of passing, altering, passed a plan, it was then given to the comptrolle privilege of altering the budget if necessary or sity funds were allocated by the Ministry of Educated trips usually were planned for the end of the dumped indiscriminately in order to justify a like No special permits or papers were necessary for pworking in the interior of USSR, except for a valuear border areas, such as in the Caucasus, travely point of origin were necessary.  1939, border police required to request from town to town.	their superior, the stimulus for their superior, the director s of the assistant director's area of USSR to be visited, proposal had to be first circulications of interest by staff esting that their particular umber of specimens, thus normally in was then handed to the museum or vetoing. If the director ar of the University, who had the giving final approval. Univeration each fiscal year, and hat year when unused funds were a fund again.  ersonnel or equipment while id Soviet passport.  l permits granted by NKVD at in Georgia SSR in permission from them to travel
50X1	3.	acquiring flora and fauna specimens for the museum most trips rested with the assistant directors or himself. Discussions would be held by the members division, who would draw up a proposal, including purpose of trip, complement, and a budget. This is lated amongst the various museum divisions for incembers. All divisions had the privilege of required of interest be indulged with a reasonable mincreasing the requested budget. The overall plandirector who had the power of passing, altering, passed a plan, it was then given to the comptrolle privilege of altering the budget if necessary or sity funds were allocated by the Ministry of Educated trips usually were planned for the end of the dumped indiscriminately in order to justify a like the interior of USSR, except for a valuear border areas, such as in the Caucasus, trave point of origin were necessary.  Near border areas, such as in the Caucasus, trave point of origin were necessary.  1939, border police required to request from town to town.	their superior, the stimulus for their superior, the director s of the assistant director's area of USER to be visited, proposal had to be first circudications of interest by staff esting that their particular number of specimens, thus normally mass then handed to the museum or vetoing. If the director are of the University, who had the giving final approval. Univeration each fiscal year, and hat year when unused funds were a fund again.  Ersonnel or equipment while id Soviet passport.  I permits granted by NKVD at in Georgia SSR in permission from them to travel
50X1	3.	acquiring flora and fauna specimens for the museum most trips rested with the assistant directors or himself. Discussions would be held by the members division, who would draw up a proposal, including purpose of trip, complement, and a budget. This lated amongst the various museum divisions for incembers. All divisions had the privilege of required of interest be indulged with a reasonable mincreasing the requested budget. The overall plandirector who had the power of passing, altering, passed a plan, it was then given to the comptrolled privilege of altering the budget if necessary or sity funds were allocated by the Ministry of Educated trips usually were planned for the end of the dumped indiscriminately in order to justify a like No special permits or papers were necessary for pworking in the interior of USSR, except for a valuation of origin were necessary.  Near border areas, such as in the Caucasus, trave point of origin were necessary.  1939, border police required to request from town to town.  Travel was usually via rail, except in working aroused.	their superior, the director their superior, the director of the assistant director's area of USSR to be visited, proposal had to be first circudications of interest by staff esting that their particular number of specimens, thus normally mass then handed to the museum or vetoing. If the director ar of the University, who had the giving final approval. Universition each fiscal year, and hat year when unused funds were fund again.  Ersonnel or equipment while in Soviet passport.  I permits granted by NKVD at in Georgia SSR in permission from them to travel